3. WORKING HUNTER

a. SANESA WORKING HUNTER RULES

Showing Rules as per SASA National Technical Discipline committee rules, including/excluding the following:

- i. Due to the nature of the class, no Level 0 classes will be offered.
- ii. There may be no cross entry of horse-rider combination between levels at any one show.
- iii. Horses and ponies will compete in separate classes in Level 5 and Level 7.
- iv. Competitors will be required to do a hunter type test and may include rustic rails; straw bales; gates; rustic planks; banks; dykes; ditches and water trays (not water jumps) with single oxers; double oxers; parallel rails; rustic type rails and walls of stone colour with rails behind.
- v. All ponies/horses in the Show Riding, Working Riding and Working Hunter sections are to be clean, neatly turned out and plaited.
- vi. Riders may wear inflatable or non-inflatable body protectors which must be either black or navy jackets incorporating body protectors and must confirm to SASA dress code.
- vii. No horse or pony may do more than 4 classes per day (includes all disciplines).
- viii. It is the responsibility of the rider/parent/Chef d'Equipe to make sure the correct tests are prepared.
- ix. The onus is on the rider to ensure that he/she and his/her horse/pony are correctly registered and have entered in the correct classes to be considered for grading points. It is on the onus of the rider/parent to tick the grading box when entering the relevant classes.
- x. For Levels 5 and 7; all competitors must be present in the arena for judging of the conformation phase of the class unless special dispensation for a competitor to leave has been granted by the judge. In this instance the conformation should be judged straight after the jumping round.

b. WORKING HUNTER DISPENSATIONS/DIRECTIVES GIVEN TO SANESA:

- i. Horses and ponies will compete in separate classes.
- ii. NO stallions allowed in level 5 or 7 for Primary and High school classes.
- iii. Stallions may compete in Level 1 & 3 classes providing the relevant SANESA requirements have been met.
- iv. Conformation will only be judged in Level 5 and 7 of both Primary and High schools league.
- v. Grading will be applicable for Level 5 and 7 only, which will be judged as a proper SASA Working Hunter Class.
- vi. There will be no ride by the judge in any class.
- vii. Levels 5 and 7 working hunter classes will be judged as a Working Hunter class as per SASA rules for ring procedure.
- viii. Working Hunter courses must be designed by a qualified SAEF course designer.
- ix. White Jodhpurs or breeches are not permitted in Level 5 & 7 Show Riding or Working classes.
- x. Grading points may be awarded at Novice or Open level depending on the status of the horse/pony at the time of grading.
- xi. SASA judges on the following panels Junior, Provincial, National and International may judge all levels - Level 0-7
- xii. SASA Judges on the Learner Panel may not judge any levels unless dispensation has been given by the SASA President. A Learner Panel Judge is not allowed to judge by themselves. They may sit in with another judge, to gain experience.
